National City, S. Ellen Jones Neighborhood Association and East Spring Street Neighborhood Association to Host Anti-Predatory Lending Educational Workshop

Learn How to Protect Yourself from Abusive Lenders

Abusive or predatory lenders target people who are strapped for cash. But the loans they push usually have sky-high interest rates and fees. They're often illegal, too.

This workshop, presented by Deborah Williams (National City), will teach residents how to recognize predatory lending, understand loan terms, find the best loan deal, and much more.

Foreclosures around the country are approaching record levels. Don't miss this valuable workshop - your financial future could depend on it.

Light snacks and refreshments will be provided.

When: Tuesday, July 17th – 6:30pm to 7:30pm

Where: S. Ellen Jones Elementary School, 600 East 11th Street, New Albany, Indiana
(Meeting to take place in the cafeteria)
